Sealed Proposals.

TATE ADOPTION OF HIGH SCHOOL.
Text Books.—At a meeting of the State Board of Education, held on January 7, 1910, an order was entered authorizing the secretary of the State Board of Education to advertise for bids in the matter of the selection of text books for high schools for a term of not less than four years, beginning August 1,

schools for a term of not less than four years, beginning August 1, 1910.

In accordance with the provisions of said resolution, I hereby give notice that on or before APRIL 15, 1910, at 12 O'clock noon, at the office of the State Board of Education, at Richmond, Va. sealed proposals will be received for supplying public schools of the State of Virginia with text books for use in the high schools of the State as previded by law. Such proposals are requested on both the single list plan and the multiple list plan and should state the prices at which each book offered will be sold to the children or patrons of the schools and the exchange prices where such book shall take the place of a book now in use.

A circular giving a copy of the law under which this adoption is made and other particulars will be malled on application.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Given under my hand this 15th day of January, 1910.

PRAISING LEE AS HE DIES.

Winchester, Va., January 29.—E. Holmes Boyd, member of the firm of Barton & Boyd, attorneys, and one of the leading lawyers of Virginia, died suddenly here inte last night, aged seventy years. Mr. Boyd's death came in a very tracic manner. He was attending a banquet given by the General Turner Ashby Camp of Confederate Veterans in honor of General Lee's birthday. As one of the last speakers of the evening Mr. Boyd was giving some interesting personal war reminiscences when stricken with apoplexy, dying instantly. He was attired in Confederate uniform at the time of his death.
